

Oostvallei residents are socially busy with activities such as functions, gatherings, theatrical performances and outings that are widely supported.

Library

Oostvallei's library offers a wide variety of books, which grows annually thanks to donations made by new residents. This is often a good enough reason to also glance through the daily newspapers.

Christmas and Easter

The annual Christmas and Easter gatherings are exceptionally popular. Much effort goes into the preparation of gourmet meals for these occasions. Therefore this is the ideal opportunity to invite family without the stress of having to prepare a meal at home.

Walking Trails are a popular way of getting the outdoors, trails through the village for daily and with 'Weeping Stone' is a composite of different types of stone and is designed -

